

Receiving R&D Tax Credit isn't as difficult as research and development themselves.

If you are unsure of your eligibility, read why you should contact JC&Company's R&D Tax Services professionals.

JC&COMPANY R&D TAX CREDIT SERVICE

- Feasibility Test, Free of charge

Unsure whether you qualify for the credit? We will run the feasibility test to determine your qualification. For free.

- Service Fee, Deferred till Realization

This is how confident we are. We defer most of the fee until R&D credit is realized, which means you share some portion of your credit when you receive and spend it.

- Credit Management, Maximizing Future Credit Amount

With proper advice from our specialists, you can restructure your business to increase the credit amount you will receive.
